2022 Original Medicare Costs

Hospital Deductible: $1,556 per benefit period*

Hospital Co-Payments:

Days 1-60	$0
Days 61-90	$389/day
60 days of “lifetime reserve”	$778/day after day 90
After using the lifetime reserve days	All costs

Skilled Nursing Facility (SNF) Co-payments:

Days 1-20 per benefit period*	$0
Days 21-100 of skilled care	$194.50 per day
Each day after day 100	All costs

Note: A benefit period begins with admission to a hospital or SNF and ends when the patient has gone without hospital or skilled care for 60 days.*

Part A premium: Free if you or your current or former spouse paid Medicare taxes for 10 years (40 work credits); if not, may enroll in Part A as a “voluntary” beneficiary and pay $274 per month (if you earned 30-39 credits); or $499 per month (if you earned less than 30 credits).

Part B deductible: $233 per year.

Part B premium: Standard Part B premium is $170.10 per month unless 2020 tax reported income exceeds $91,000 for an individual or $182,000 for joint filers. Income Related Monthly Adjustment Amounts (IRMAA) premiums range as high as $578.30 per month per beneficiary. Consider appealing IRMAA if life changing event has occurred since 2020. A very small number of people will benefit from the hold harmless rule, which protects beneficiaries from receiving reduced SSA benefits because COLA does not cover their Part B premium.

Part B co-insurance: Pay 20% of Medicare-approved amount after deductible.

Amount in Controversy Thresholds*:

Administrative Law Judge Hearing:	$180
Federal Judicial Review:	$1,760

Note: This is the amount your claim(s) must be worth in order to reach this stage of the Medicare appeals process.*

Consider ways of meeting Medicare out-of-pocket costs (if eligible):

- Medigap plans;
- MassHealth (including Buy-In and Senior Buy-In);
- Health Safety Net; and,
- Employer retirement insurance

Beneficiaries who choose Original Medicare will need prescription drug coverage generally through a privately-sponsored Part D plan. While premiums and other costs vary among plans, Low Income Subsidies (Extra Help) are available to certain low income beneficiaries to assist with costs.
