

Northeast Regional Anti-Hunger Network (NERAHN) Anti-Hunger Program & Policy Conference

With rising food and fuel prices, the coming winter will be very tough for everyone, especially for households with limited budgets. In order to address the food insecurity implications of this approaching situation, this conference will provide a variety of anti-hunger program and policy resources that can be implemented in your state and community.

Hoagland-Pincus Conference Center
Monday, October 27, 2008
8:30 AM - 5 PM
222 Maple Avenue, Shrewsbury MA

Registration opens on Tuesday, September 2 at www.nerahn.org. Space is limited, so please register as soon as possible. Registration fee is $35.

For more information on the agenda for the day as well as local hotel discounts, please go to www.nerahn.org.

NERAHN Members

Connecticut

Connecticut Association for Human Services
End Hunger Connecticut!

Maine

University of Southern Maine Muskie School of Public Service -
Maine Nutrition Network

Massachusetts

Project Bread - The Walk for Hunger
The Children's Sentinel Nutrition Assessment Program (C-SNAP)

New Hampshire

Southern New Hampshire Services, Inc.

New York

Hunger Action Network of New York State
Nutrition Consortium of New York State

Rhode Island

Rhode Island Community Food Bank
University of Rhode Island - Feinstein Center for a Hunger Free
America

Vermont

Vermont Campaign to End Childhood Hunger
Vermont Foodbank

National

Bread for the World
Food Research and Action Center
USDA Food and Nutrition Service

Sponsored by the Food Research and Action Center and the Northeast Regional Anti-Hunger Network

www.nerahn.org