

Tenants' Rights in Massachusetts During COVID

-Live Webcast -
Wednesday, April 14, 2021
9:30am - 3:30pm

This training is for community and lay advocates, mediators, housing and legal advocates, and others interested in having a better understanding of tenants' rights in Massachusetts during COVID.

This year the training will focus on the eviction process, discrimination, getting repairs made, and rent issues. While the training is primarily on rights of tenants in private housing, there will be some information on the rights of subsidized tenants.

Materials will include an online copy of the 2017 edition of Legal Tactics: Tenants' Rights in Massachusetts with updated chapters, letters, and checklists
