

About the Faculty

ANNETTE R. DUKE is a staff attorney at Massachusetts Law Reform Institute, a statewide advocacy and policy center. Since 1993, she has been editor of Legal Tactics: Tenants' Rights in Massachusetts. She has coordinated successful campaigns for statewide housing courts, eviction record sealing protections, protections for public housing tenants facing redevelopment, and funding for access to counsel in eviction cases. She is currently working on a legislative campaign to provide a framework for a statewide access to counsel program.

LAURA CAMARA is a Senior Attorney with Greater Boston Legal Services Housing Unit where she focuses on eviction defense, housing subsidy access and retention, and tenants rights issues. Prior to working with GBLS, she was the Director of Housing Advocacy at the Justice Center of Southeast Massachusetts, LLC. Laura is a graduate of the State University of New York at Buffalo Law School and Providence College.

PATRICIA WHITING is a Lecturer on Law and Supervising Attorney at the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau who has focused on eviction defense and landlord/tenant issues for more than 20 years. She is a graduate of Boston College Law School and the Harvard Graduate School of Education.
