

DUA Adjudication Handbook

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Adjudicator responsibilities

Section 1. Code of Conduct

- A. General principles
- B. Confidentiality
- C. Conflict of interest law for state employees

Section 2. Federal requirements: fact-finding and determinations

- A. Reasonable attempt(s) requirements
- B. Element 20 – Claimant information
- C. Element 21 – Employer information
- D. Element 22 – Information (facts) from others
- E. Element 23 – Law and policy correctly applied
- F. Element 24 – The written determination

Section 3. Burden of proof; substantial and credible evidence; preponderance of the evidence

Section 4. Limited English Proficiency (LEP) claimants

- A. Statute and regulations
- B. DUA policy
- C. Identification of a claimant’s primary language
- D. Oral communications with claimants
- E. Translated materials and good cause protections
- F. Examples of “good cause”

Chapter 2: Filing requirements and considerations

Section 1. Filing and reporting

- A. Statute
- B. Principles
- C. Claimant identification and initial claims
- D. Continued claims and late requests for benefits
- E. Failure to document work search activities
- F. Reemployment services; RESEA Career Center Seminar; Failure to report for RESEA review

- G. Good cause
- H. Out-of-country filings
- I. No courtesy claims

Section 2. Predating of claims (new and reopened)

- A. Statutes and regulations
- B. Principles
- C. Good cause
- D. Employer requirements under § 62A(g)
- E. Procedures

Section 3. No withdrawal of a filed claim: exception

- A. Statutes
- B. Principles
- C. Circumstances and policies

Section 4. Consequences to employers for inadequate or untimely employer responses to requests for information

- A. Statutes
- B. Principles
- C. Section 38A: Payment of benefits
- D. Administering § 38 and § 38A
- E. Appeals

Chapter 3: Monetary determinations

Section 1. General principles

Section 2. Employing units subject to G. L. c. 151A

- A. Coverage of city, town, state, and non-profit employers
- B. Multi-state employment
- C. Agricultural employees
- D. Domestic employers
- E. Employment outside of the United States
- F. American vessels and aircraft

Section 3. Contributory and reimbursable employers

- A. Contributory employers
- B. Reimbursable employers

Section 4. Services excluded from covered employment

- A. Independent contractors

B. Services excluded from covered employment

Section 5. Subsequent benefit year claims (§ 31)

A. Statute

Section 6. Extension of base period due to receipt of workers' compensation

Section 7. Dependency allowance

A. Statute

B. Principles

Section 8. Extended benefits (EB)

A. Statutes

B. Monetary determinations

C. Benefit year expired prior to EB period

D. Reduction in maximum number of weeks on a regular claim

E. Impact of EB on § 25(e) disqualification provisions

F. Difference between disqualification provisions on regular claim and EB claim

G. Work needed to end EB disqualification

H. Suitable work on EB claim

I. Work search requirements

J. Miscellaneous provisions

Chapter 4: Able, available, and actively seeking work

Section 1. Introduction

A. Statutes and regulations

Section 2. Capable of work

A. General principles

B. Fact-finding

C. Fact patterns and exceptions

Section 3. Available for work

A. General principles

B. Fact patterns and exceptions

Section 4. Actively seeking work

A. General principles

B. Fact-finding

- C. Fact patterns and exceptions

Chapter 5: Suitable work

Section 1. Statute

Section 2. Principles

Section 3. Fact-finding and analysis

- A. Did the claimant refuse, without good cause, to apply for suitable employment when notified to do so?
- B. Was a job offer made, received, and refused?
- C. If the claimant refused to accept or apply for a job, was there good cause?
- D. Was the work refused suitable?

Section 4. Circumstances and policies

- A. Prevailing conditions of work test
- B. Union considerations
- C. Recalls
- D. Transportation and travel
- E. Travel expenses
- F. Training or experience
- G. Safety, health, and physical environment
- H. Refusing lower-paid or less-skilled employment
- I. Pre-employment drug test – refusal to take test
- J. Pre-employment drug test- positive test
- K. Domestic violence

Section 5. Disqualification and benefit reduction

Chapter 6: Separations

Section 1. Determining whether a separation is a discharge or a quit

- A. Circumstances and policies

Section 2. Constructive deduction

- A. Definitions
- B. Procedures to determine constructive deduction
- C. Circumstances and policies

- D. Circumstances under which a constructive deduction may permanently or temporarily cease to be imposed

Section 3. Domestic violence

- A. Statutes
- B. Definitions
- C. Claimant fact-finding
- D. Documentation not required
- E. Benefit charging

Section 4. Interested party employers

Section 5. Effects of disqualifying separation on new claim

Section 6. Leaves of absence

- A. Claimant does not return to work at end of leave
- B. Temporary shut-down during leave
- C. Leaves covered by FMLA or MMLA

Chapter 7: Voluntary leaving

Section 1. Introduction

- A. Overview of statute
- B. Statute
- C. Concepts

Section 2. No good cause attributable to the employer

- A. Fact-finding
- B. Examples

Section 3. Good cause attributable to the employer

- A. Fact-finding
- B. Examples

Section 4. Urgent, compelling, and necessitous reasons for leaving

- A. Fact-finding
- B. Examples of urgent, compelling, and necessitous reasons for leaving

Section 5. Racial, sexual, and other unreasonable harassment

- A. Statute and regulations
- B. Fact-finding
- C. Employer charge

Section 6. Domestic violence

- A. Leaving work
- B. Attempts to maintain employment

Section 7. Mandatory retirement programs

- A. Example

Section 8. Leaving work to enter or return to school, or a Section 30-approved training program

- A. Claimant in partial unemployment quits to enter approved training
- B. Claimant quits or refuses suitable, full-time work to enter approved training
- C. Claimant quits to enter or return to school or training that is not approved under Section 30

Section 9. Leaving work to accept an offer of new employment

Section 10. Temporary employee of temporary help firm, including day laborers; Contract employees

- A. Statute and regulations
- B. Applicability
- C. Fact-finding
- D. Circumstances and policies

Chapter 8: Discharge, suspension, and conviction

Section 1. Discharge

- A. Statute
- B. General principles
- C. Knowing violation of a reasonable and uniformly enforced rule or policy
- D. Fact-finding: knowing violation
- E. Deliberate misconduct in willful disregard of the employer's interest
- F. Fact-finding: misconduct

Section 2. Suspensions for workplace violations

- A. Statute and regulations
- B. Principles
- C. Circumstances and policies

Section 3. Suspensions of public employees following indictment

- A. Circumstances and policies

Section 4. Convictions

- A. Statute
- B. Definitions
- C. Principles

Appendix: Employee rights under Massachusetts law

- A. Rights related to wages
- B. Right to time off
- C. Rights related to conditions of work
- D. Rights related to health and family
- E. Rights related to protection against discrimination
- F. Rights related to political freedom and privacy
- G. Rights related to protections against retaliation

Chapter 9: Other pay and benefits

Section 1. Total unemployment

- A. Statutes
- B. Principles
- C. Circumstances and policies

Section 2. Partial unemployment

- A. Statutes
- B. Principles
- C. Determining whether a claimant is in partial unemployment

Section 3. Remuneration

- A. Statutes
- B. Types of payments received during the benefit year

Section 4. Retirement benefits

- A. Statute
- B. Principles
- C. Fact-finding
- D. Lump sum distribution
- E. Circumstances and policies

Section 5. Overpayments

- A. Statutes and regulations
- B. Principles
- C. Compensable week disqualification – fraud

- D. Appeals
- E. Overpayments resulting from receipt of back pay awards
- F. Repayment and waiver of recovery of overpayments

Chapter 10: Federal programs affecting UI eligibility

Section 1. Non-citizen claimants

- A. Statutes
- B. Principles
- C. Satisfactory immigration status
- D. Documents relating to immigration status and work authorization
- E. Policies and procedures

Section 2. UCFE – Federal employee claimants

- A. Nonmonetary determinations

Section 3. UCX – Ex-service member claimants

- A. Nonmonetary determinations – UCX
- B. Policies and procedures
- C. UCX pensions

Chapter 11: Special determinations

Section 1. Corporation cases

- A. Statutes
- B. Principles
- C. Fact-finding
- D. Corporate officer or owner returns to work for corporation following separation
- E. Separation issues
- F. Total or partial unemployment
- G. Fact-finding for corporate owners and senior managers
- H. Examples

Section 2. School employees (reasonable assurance)

- A. Statute
- B. Educational institution
- C. Principles
- D. Fact-finding
- E. Procedures
- F. Circumstances and policies

G. Examples

Section 3. Professional athletics

- A. Statute
- B. Definitions
- C. Principles
- D. Procedures
- E. Examples

Section 4. Certified seasonal employment

- A. Statutes
- B. Regulations
- C. Principles
- D. Procedures

Section 5. Receipt of Workers' Compensation

- A. Statutes and regulations
- B. Principles
- C. Procedures
- D. Circumstances and policies

Section 6. DUA training opportunities: Section 30

- A. Statute and regulations
- B. Waiver of availability, worksearch, and suitable work requirements only
- C. Additional training benefits – up to 26 weeks
- D. Procedures
- E. Section 30 – Miscellaneous provisions

Chapter 12: Reconsiderations and appeals

Section 1. Reconsideration of determinations

- A. Statute
- B. Principles

Section 2. Appeals

- A. Statute
- B. Appeal requirements
- C. Appeals to the Board of Review
- D. Labor disputes
- E. Appeal of ineligible monetary determinations
- F. Reconsideration of hearing decisions