

Language Access Portal on the Trial Court's Web Site

<http://www.mass.gov/courts/language-access>

Language Access Right to an Interpreter:

"You have a right to an interpreter, free of charge, for all court events. If you require an interpreter, please let the court staff know." (Translation into several languages available on the "Right to an Interpreter" Poster)

"Right to an Interpreter" Poster:

<http://www.mass.gov/courts/docs/admin/interpreters/poster-right-to-interpreter.pdf>

Language Access Plan:

<http://www.mass.gov/courts/docs/language-access-plan.pdf>

Court Service Centers

<http://www.mass.gov/courts/court-info/court-management/plan-initiatives/court-service-centers.html>

Some of the Forms and Information in Multiple Languages

209A Forms - Spanish, Arabic, Haitian Creole, Simplified Chinese, Cambodian (Khmer), Russian, Portuguese, Vietnamese

The Family Court Workshop for Mothers and for Fathers - Spanish

Financial Statement (Short Form) - Spanish, Portuguese

Financial Statement Instructions - Spanish Portuguese

Waiver of Counsel (District Court) - Spanish

Small Claims Forms and Videos - Spanish, Haitian Creole, Chinese, Cambodian (Khmer), Russian, Portuguese, Vietnamese

In progress:

Waiver of Defendant's Rights (Superior)

Waiver of Rights/Tender of Plea (District)

Election as to Trial (BMC)

Application for Three Day Commitment (District)

Representing yourself in a civil case

Language Access Plan of the Trial Court