Re: TAFDC – Deemed Income

Overview

A deemor is a member of the filing unit, not applying for or receiving TAFDC, whose income must be considered when determining the eligibility and grant amount of other household members. Any income from this individual is considered deemed income.

Purpose

This Online Guide Transmittal advises DTA staff of changes made to the Deemed Income – TAFDC Online Guide page:

- Providing guidance on determining the number of tax dependents to enter on the Deemor page; and
 - Defining the automated deeming calculation.
