

Operations Bulletin 2016-3
SNAP: Federal Mileage Rate Decreases

The new federal mileage rate of 54 cents must be used when calculating allowable transportation costs for a medical deduction or a dependent care deduction. The new mileage rate represents a decrease when compared to last year. The Online Guide has been updated to reflect this change.