

Are you a four-year college student struggling to afford food?

You might be eligible for SNAP benefits!

Four-year college students (and 2-year private college) who meet certain eligibility rules may be eligible for SNAP to help buy groceries. You may get $204 per month (amount for 1 person living alone). You may be eligible if you meet any of the following:

- You get a MassGrant in your financial aid,
- Have a Work Study job or anticipate one,
- Work, on average, at least 20 hours/week,
- Are in school through Mass Rehab Commission,
- Have a child under 12, OR meet other rules.

Supplemental Nutrition
Assistance Program

Students with meal plans covering 2/3 of their meals are not eligible for SNAP. If you are not a US citizen, you need to meet certain immigration status rules. And there are income and other SNAP rules to be eligible. Go to DTAConnect.com to apply for SNAP. For more information and your rights, visit: Masslegalservices.org/food4students
